

M Rock Instructor Job Description 2007-2008

Primary Purpose

Instruct introductory movement on rock classes for small and large groups in conjunction with UMove. Dates and times change quarterly.

Climbing Wall Responsibilities

- Monitor wall safety practices while working
- Attend all trainings and staff meetings
- Instruct introduction to movement on rock classes to users 18 years and older
- Manage all equipment necessary to setup and take down the climbing wall
- Provide instruction for belay lessons and belay checks
- Provide First Aid if necessary
- Set boulder problems and top rope routes
- Keeps wall, storage closets, and wall area clean, safe, and organized
- Assist with additional projects as seen fit by the Director or Assistant Director

Qualifications

- Proficiency in Microsoft Word, Excel, Access
- Demonstrated self-initiative and eagerness to take on responsibility without direct supervision
- Excellent time management skills
- Knowledge of setting bouldering problems and top rope routes
- Certifications in CPR/First Aid/AED
- An ability to teach skills, a positive sense of humor, and a sense of adventure
- Knowledge and experience in belay systems and uses
- Knowledge and experience in climbing techniques
- Strong interpersonal and communication skills
- Leading and instructing groups of 5-25 people
- Ability to work with a diverse community
- Strong organization skills
- Knowledge of rock climbing equipment

Environmental Conditions

- Will be subject to working at heights up to 21 feet
- May be exposed to falling objects
- May be required to lift or transport equipment weighing up to 40 lbs.
- May be exposed to bodily fluids while giving First Aid/ CPR
- Able to stand for long periods of time